All winning and HM images, along with this report, are posted on the NECCC web site (http://www.neccc.org/New\_Outline\_4.htm). Please share that information with your club members, particularly those who ask what types of photographs win. These galleries provide your members, particularly the newer members, with great examples of good photography from which they can learn.

Problems

Two nature images received low scores this round as the judges felt that these were not appropriate nature photographs. The judges comments were that: "one was an ibis flock shot that was converted to black and white and then the bill converted back to its original color" and "the other image was a tree with obviously mowed grass in a major part of the background".

The other major problem were a number of clubs that waited until the last minute to submit images and suddenly found themselves without power due to the October snow storm that occurred the Sunday before the closing. We held the competition open for an additional week until all clubs except one were able to submit images. That one club called to tell us that they wouldn't make it. The lesson for all of us is don't wait until the last minute to submit images. You never know what might happen.

Next Competition (2011-2012)

Winter Competition: The second NECCC Electronic Photograph Interclub Competition of the 2011-12 season will be held on Tuesday, February 21, 2012, hosted by the Gateway Camera Club. The location will be St. Andrews Church, 3 Maple Street, Framingham, MA 01702. For driving instructions go to http://www.gatewaycameraclub.org/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=314&Itemid=65. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. The closing date for receipt of entries will be Wednesday, February 1, 2012. The upload site will open around Jan. 1, 2012, for receipt of entries. Don't wait until the last minute to submit yours.
