

Winter 2009-2010 Interclub Print Competition

Reported by Arthur S. Vaughan, MNEC
NECCC Print Chairman

The winter 2010 interclub print competition was held on Monday, Feb. 8th at the Manchester Camera Club. Serving as competition organizers and coordinators were Karen and Dick Hudnall. The judges for this competition were Billy Tooley, Roger Treadwell, and Jim Freed. Ready to step up if needed was an alternate judge, Ian Hartsoe of Hunt's Photo & Video.

Billy Tooley is currently the Executive Director of the New Hampshire Arts Association (NHAA), holds two arts degrees, and has a solid record in arts administration and juried exhibitions.

Roger Treadwell is a past member of Manchester Camera Club, has served as judge for area camera clubs, and has images on file in several stock agencies. Formerly a member of the retail sales group at Perfecta Camera and Ritz, he's now at Hunt's Photo & Video of Manchester.

Jim Freed is a member of the New Hampshire Arts Association, past member of both the Manchester Camera Club and Photographers Forum Camera Club of Nashua, is a darkroom printer, and has also served as a judge for area camera clubs.

Many thanks go to Manchester Camera Club members for their help in setting up/breaking down, keeping score, and displaying prints in the print box. Special thanks go to Bob Legg, Sally Turner, Diane Conway, K.M. Hayes, Joe Drapeau, Walter Friesendorf, and Kent Messamore for their work ensuring that the competition ran smoothly.

A total of 210 prints were submitted: 66-class A, 33-class B, and 111-Color. Participating were 28 clubs, 16 in class A, 9 in class B, and 28 in Color. There were forty one award winning prints: 12 class A, 11 class B, and 18 in Color. Although the scoring was lower than usual, which does happen on occasion, the point spread and distribution had no impact on the total number of awards assigned. Results of the Winter 2010 competition are:
